

Good resources for teaching children about God

'Everything a child should know about God'

This is a great book to read with young kids or have older primary school aged children read to themselves. Each page teaches one Christian truth and asks a simple question.

New City Catechism

This is a free App you can get on your phone. Question by question it works through the Christian faith and gives a short answer to each theological question. For adults there is the option to read a Bible scholars commentary on each question. For kids there is a simplified answer and song that goes with each question. Get out the wooden spoons and make some noise!
